Isaac Norris (my grandfather) was born July 26th, 1671 in the Isle of Wight, Great Britain. He removed with his parents when young to Jamaica where his mother Mary Norris died June 3rd, 1685. His father Thomas Norris being unsatisfied with the West Indies sent his son over to Pennsylvania in 1690 in order (if he should approve of the country), to make a settlement for the family. But on his return to Jamaica in 1692 to bring them he had the affliction to find that his Fathers most of the family had perished in the dreadful earthquake which destroyed Port Royal. The vessel he was in sailing over the place where his Father's house had stood. He then collected the remains of his property which amounted to but little more than one hundred pounds sterling and came back to Pennsylvania where he pleaded divine providence to bless him in an extraordinary manner for very soon had a large family to provide for yet he grew rich and was truly respectable ever maintaining the character for integrity and honor. He was endowed by nature with excellent abilities and filled several stations in the government with great reputation. As Speaker of the Assembly and member of the Council, Commissioner of Property and Chief Justice of Pennsylvania in which last office he was at the time of his decease June 4, 1755. He died suddenly of an apoplexy in the meeting house of Germantown was immediately brought to the seat of his friend and neighbor James Logan where every means was tried for his recovery but in vain!

(A silver dish with the arms of the family was thrown up by the earthquake and picked up at sea in the cradle of a little negro child still living when found. The dish is in the possession of my brother Thomas Norris.)

(June 7th 1692 It began about noon and in two minutes time shook down and destroyed the greatest part of Port Royal and all of the family died in thequake only very few escaped them.)

In 1706 Isaac Norris with his wife and eldest daughter went to England for a visit to their friend; they were shipwrecked on the coast of Ireland and were kindly received into the house of a friend Joseph Pike where my grandmother was delivered of a son (Thomas). During their stay they visited Wales and were entertained at the seat of her family Dotobran. After their return my grandfather purchased a large estate in the neighborhood of Philadelphia where he built a very handsome and commodious house after the plan of Dotobran and called it Fairhill here he resided the rest of his life.

My grandparents moved into their house at Fairhill about the beginning of the year 1717. Their two daughters were both married in that year and their weddings were held at Fairhill. Here they lived in the practice of hospitality and of all the social virtues.

"Friend of the wretched – Parent to the Poor

The stranger trod thy hospitable door

And behold the kind relief – the bended knee

And withering hand implored their heaven for thee"

After their decease this seat came into the possession of their eldest surviving son Isaac Norris who supported with great credit the reputation which his father had established, he was truly the head of the family. Taking under his protection all branches of it that stood in need of his support. He early lost his amiable wife, she dying in childbirth of her 4th child, left two daughters. His public office (Speaker of the Assembly for a long course of years) and the education of his children engulfed the greatest part of his time. What he could spare from these was devoted to study to which he was greatly attached and had qualified himself by an acquaintance with the Latin, Greek, and most modern languages, he had a large library fitted up in a most appropriate and pleasant building in his garden containing many rooms which to my fancy were as well fitted for contemplative study as the groves at the Academy. I used in early youth to survey with delight this beautiful retreat. The windows of his favorite apartment were curtained with ivy, the shelves filled with the best authors, materials for writing or drawing at hand, beautiful specimens of some of the arts, neat pictures, a glass hive which communicated without for the admiration of the bees, and in this building was also the greenhouse.

Few families have enjoyed greater happiness than that of Fairhill, but alas, like all human frailty it was fleeting; about 10 years after the death of my uncle, his property was laid waste and the house burnt by the British Army during the Revolutionary War. It was then in the tenure of John Dickinson Esq. who had married Mary, my uncle's eldest daughter.

Her father made no will, but calling his two daughters to his bedside a short time before his decease he told them that it was his intention to settle that estate (of Fairhill) upon his nephew Isaac, with an entail to his brothers in case of his leaving no male heir and that he now trusted the execution of his intention to them: which they religiously performed by a Deed of Gift immediately after his death.

In less than three years afterwards, his youngest daughter Sarah, a lady eminently distinguished for her virtue, piety, discretion, and beauty to the impercievable grief of her sister and family of whom she was the delight and ornament died of the smallpox at Fairhill in the month of June 1769.

Mary afterwards married John Dickinson Esq. who had taken a prominent part in creating the liberties of his Country. And with his wife and infant daughter left this seat of Fairhill upon the approach of the British Army. During the course of the war he was betrayed. My cousin had reserved it to her own life until my brother was thirty years of age. After the destruction my mother purchased this time and my brother sometimes after he came of age rebuilt the house on the original foundation, but vastly inferior in beauty and convenience. It is now in the possession of my brother Joseph Parker Norris who holds it by right of a second Deed of Settlement from my cousin Mary Dickinson (I believe)in of fee.

My own father was a very amiable domestic caretaker, of great sweetness of temper and agreeable manner flowing from its purest source, a benevolent heart. He was exceedingly beloved by his family and friends and respected and esteemed by his fellow citizens. His first wife was Margaret (daughter of Dm. Rodman of Buche County), who died of a decline within a year after their marriage.

He was then building his house in Chestnut Street which he beautified with a large garden handsomely laid out according to the taste of the times, with graveled walks and pastures of flowers of which it contained a good collection, with fruits of various kinds, the best I ever saw. His sister Deborah lived with him and took great pleasure in this department. She had also a greenhouse well filled with exotics, and a small hothouse where her gardener produced excellent pineapples.

My father lived a widower for about eight years and in June 1759 married my mother Mary Par, her (daughter of Joseph Parker Esq. of Chisker in Delaware County). She was his only child and heir to his fortune which was considerable.

Their heirs were;

Isaac born July 18th 1760	Died October 5th 1802
Deborah born October 19th 1761	married Sept. 6, 1781 to George Logan
Joseph Parker born May 5th 1763	married May 20, 1790 to Elizabeth H. Foa
Charles born July 12, 1765	married to Eunice Gardner and died at his house near Norris December 24, 1813

* There is still living in 1824 a person Phineas Buckley of Bristol who was present at my father's first marriage. He was related to the bride who he says was most delicately beautiful. They were married in Mrs. Murrings? Home in Burlington.

Charles Norris, my honored father, died at his home on Chestnut Street January 14th 1766 and was buried on the 16th in Friends Burial Ground on Perth Street in the N.E corner of the said ground where his Father, Mother, and all their children with many other relations and connections of the family were also laid.

My mother was an excellent woman, and of very good abilities. She had received a much better education than was usually bestowed on daughters when she was young; her mind was enriched by an acquaintance with the Gish? authors, her memory was uncommonly good, her disposition cheerful and her conversation instructive and very entertaining. She was solid, prudent, affectionate, and benevolent. The manner in which she conducted herself after the death of her husband and the very able manner in which she investigated and settled his affairs secured her the kindest friendships of his family and the esteem and applause of all who knew her and could judge of the difficulties she had to surmount.

She died December 4, 1799 at her Father's house in Chester where she resided the last eight years of her life and was buried on the 6th in Friends Burial Ground in that place by the site of her Father's grave. Her illness was short but not severe, her mind calm and her exit apparently easy.

May I meet her sainted spirit in Heaven

My grandfather Joseph Parker came over to this country pretty early in the last century, he had received a good English education. His father owned a freehold estate in Yorkshire Great Britain where he was born but the rigor and hard usage of a mother-in-law forced him to emigrate when young, yet he loved his half-brother, her son, and used to please himself with the thought that he left the entail of his father's property to him, who would be the benefitted by his absence.

- He died at his house in Chester May 5, 1766 and was buried in Friends Grave Yard belonging to that place where a stone with his name and the year of his death marks the place of his interment as one also does that of his wife. His daughter, my honored mother, lies on the other side of his grave.

Upon his arrival he landed at Chester and Judge Lloyd who lived there took him in to his office as his secretary. His integrity and good conduct soon made him respected and he acquired property, (not as it is now done by speculation and overreaching of others but by honest industry and prudence), he enjoyed afterwards many public offices in the County and was much respected by his fellow citizens and by the government. After some years he married Mary Ladd, the daughter of a respectable family in West Jersey and received a suitable portion with her but this happiness was soon interrupted for she died five days after the birth of her first child, who was my honored mother. He used to say afterwards that he was deferred from the thoughts of a second marriage by the recollection of his own sufferings under a severe mother-in-law he might he said get a wife for himself but was not sure of her proving a mother for his child. My mother repaid this kindness by being the best of daughters and they lived together in a harmony and friendship most delightful. I have frequently heard her speak of the happiness of her early life, the state of society in which they lived, the socialibility, kindness, and good neighborhood that was amongst them seemed to realize the idea of the golden age. The young people had enjoyed uncommon advantages in their education from the settlement in Chester of some persons eminently qualifies to benefit others. The mother of Henry Graham Esq. was one of those she proffered an excellent understanding, was a gentlewoman born, and had received a good education herself in England. She was like a parent to my mother who loved her as such, and her daughter as a sister, which last friendship continued with undiminished affection to the last year of her life when she lost her friend in the fatal fever which almost depopulated her native place, herself and family seeking a retreat at Shenhon? during its ravages and was the last visit I ever received from her. How can I ever forget the manner in which she received the account of her friend's death? She was indeed capable of sincere friendship and had the happiness of attaching her family and friends very closely to her, and by all was universally beloved and respected.

My mother's great grandfather – John Ladd came over to West New jersey about the year 1678. Landed at Burlington but afterwards settled in Gloucester County and proffered considerable property there.

My mother's great grandfather John Ladd married Elizabeth Unitt on December 21st , 1696. They had 3 children who grew up;

Mary born October 30, 1699 – married to Joseph Parker and died 5 days afyer the birth of my honorable mother, her only heir. Died May 29, 1731 She lies buried at Chester

John born 1702 married to Hannah Mickle had no heirs and died October 20th 1770

Catherine born 1706- Married Howell and left one son John Ladd Howell whose descendants by will inherit the estate of their uncle in West Jersey

My Grandfather Parker died May 1766 and was buried by his wife in Friends Ground of Chester. My mother lies on the other side of him and by her, would I willingly be buried.

Now that my husband and son are buried at Shenkon in the Enelofore which I have had walled for a place of internment for the family, there is the place where I wish to lie.

Hi --

Have not found anything spectacular but did run arross the following info recently and thought I'd better send it on to you. I do have copies should you not already have this and if you want them, just let me know.

Cemetery Records of Chester, Morris, NJ LDS microfiche #6050036

NORRIS - Hannan Kelsey, d. 17 Feb., 1808, age 18 yrs. and 15 days, dau. of Jabish and Sarah Kelsey. Wife of Luther Norris. (from IGI - I found Daniel Norris listed as son of Luther and Hannah (Kelsey) Norris b. 1810, Chester (Morris) N.J. This can't be her son, then, if she died in 1808???) (from IGI - Luther Norris mar. Hannah Stout on 22 Nov. 1808.)

BACKER - Benjamin W., d. 26 Nov. 1851, age 44 yrs. 6 mo. 23 days.
Husband of Mary W. Norris

Mary W. Norris, d. 16 Sept. 1858, age 43 yrs. 6 mo. 15 days.
Wife of Benjamin W. Backer
(from records of First Cong. Church in Chester, N.J. show mar. of Benjamin W. Backer to Mary W. Norris on 13 Nov. 1834 -- do not have film number)

In a N.J. cemetery record, found the following, but did not record number of file -- will go back next week and try to find it again!

NORRIS, Chas. Bryan, b. 4 May 1822, d. 24 Mar. 1894
" Mary L. Kerr, wife of above, b. 27 Mar 1824, d. 7 Aug. 1891
" Kate Kerr (see Kerr, pg. 126)
" Jessie (see Simon pg. 224)
" James Stout 1812-1898 (from 2nd mar.?)
" Elvira Clamson, wife of James Stout 1819-1891
" Edwin C., son of James Stout and Elvira d. 14 Oct. 1851 - abt. 10 yrs.
" Edward C. son of James Stout and Elvira, d. 14 May 1861, 1 yr., 7 mos., 2 da.

so it looks like Luther Norris' 3rd wife's name was BRYAN, right? On the list of names I found in the little notebook is the folloiwng:

Charles B. Norris
Mary Kerr
Alice R. Norris
Mary R. Norris
Kate K. Norris (dead)
Jessie B. Norris - mar. Simon (from IGI b. 15 Oct. 1856, Pequannock (Morris) N.J.
Carrie B. Norris - mar. Pearson (from IGI-1 yr. old in 1860 Census Pequannock (Morris) N.J.

Yippie!!! A match!!! So -- Charles B. is Hannah's older brother -- since she was born in 1828. Hope this makes sense to you. Does any of this tie in with your records? There were no BRYANS on the notebook list.

Hope everything there OK with you -- thought you might enjoy hearing about our Daniels discovery this past summer. Have a Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year!

Sincerely,

FRANCES BUCKLEY

NICHOLSON WILLIAM—From Bridge Hampton to Groton. On Feb. 15, 1783, he was allowed to return to L. I. with cattle &c. (F. 95)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 54)

NICOLL—NICOLLS—NICHOLS—Matthias 1 Nicholls, or Nicoll, came to America, in 1664. He was Colonial Sec'y, Mayor of N. Y. City and Judge. He d. in 1687. His dau., Martha 2, m. Col. Richard Floyd. (See Floyd) His son, Col. William 2, was the first Clerk of Queens Co., and Speaker of the N. Y. Ass'y. He m. Anna, dau. of Jeremiah, and Wid. of Killian Van Rensselaer, the Patroon. ("N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.," 22. 38. Also Woods "First Settlements on L. I.," pp. 144–149. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 390 et seq.) Whitaker ("Southold," p. 46) mentions Francis Nichols among the Early settlers at Southold.

Col. William 2 had a son, Benjamin 3, who m. Charity, dau. of Col. Richard Floyd (See Floyd), and lived at Islip. He was b. in 1694; d. in 1724. (Thompson, as above) Benjamin 3 had sons: Benjamin 4, and William 4. Benjamin 4, b. Mar. 17, 1718; m. Mary Magdalen Holland; d. in 1760. He graduated at Yale, in 1734. Thompson gives him one son, Benjamin, Jr. 5. William 4, b. Oct. 7, 1715; m. Joanna d'Honneur; d. Mar. 1, 1780. He was known as "Lawyer," or "Clerk" Nicoll. (Thompson, as above) His son, Benjamin 5, b. Sept. 4, 1764; m. Dec. 6, 1784, Anne, dau. of Col. Richard Floyd (See Floyd); d. Sept. 19, 1828. He removed to Shelter Island. (Thompson, as above) This Benjamin 5 was probably too young to have been the Refugee, below.

A Henry Nicoll, m. Elizabeth, dau. of Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull. (See Woodhull) After his death, she m. (2) Gen. John Smith. (See Smith)

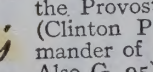
NICOLL BENJAMIN, JR. (Perhaps Benjamin, Jr., 5, above)—From Smithtown. He served as a private in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); also as a Corp. (G. 32) He was probably the Benjamin Nicolls in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and, as Benjamin Nichols, he may have served in Conn. (G. 95) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32) There was a Benjamin on Shelter Island after the War. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 74, 80, 96) I have no record of a Benjamin having lived in Conn. (Mr. William G. Nicoll)

NICOLL ROBERT ( )—From Smithtown, or Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); and probably, as Robert Nicols, in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) There was no Robert in the Nicoll Family, above mentioned. (W. G. N.)

NORRIS—It is stated that Robert had been in Southampton, since 1667. In 1683, Peter and Robert were both tax payers, and lived to the East, probably at Sagg. Peter had a wife, or dau. Sarah; and daughters, Hannah and Elizabeth. Robert had a wife, Hannah, and children: Robert, Oliver Hannah, Mary and Sarah. In 1683, Oliver was taxed in East Hampton. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 434) Probably Oliver and Silas, the Refugees, were in the 2d or 3d, generation, below.

Nicholas, b. about 1640, settled at Hampton, N. H., about 1663; and has many descendants there. (Norris Gen.)

NORRIS OLIVER ( )—From Shelter Island; where he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31) On June 12, 1777, he, with many others, signed a petition to the N. Y. Committee of Safety, asking leave to go to L. I. and to return. (A. 43) He was taken Prisoner, on Aug. 12, 1777, having a permit given by Capt. Hulbert. He was a Prisoner in the Provost, in N. Y. City, on Feb. 6, 1778. (Clinton Pap., 2. 723) He was the Commander of the Privateer "Juno." (Page 218. Also G. 95)



NORRIS SILAS ( )—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington and East Haddam. In Sept., 1776, with four in the family, he was brought to Stonington by Capt. Ephraim Pendleton (C. 214); and, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with seven passengers, to East Haddam by Capts. James Harris, James Wiggins, Robert Knight and Elias Haton. (C. 112) In Feb., 1777, he was allowed to go to L. I. for flax. (D. 44) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54)

NORTH BENJAMIN, LT.—From Queens Co. to Norwalk. In Feb., 1780, his petition to return to L. I. was granted. (E. 111, 112) He was an Ens. and a Lt.; and served in N. Y. City, in 1775 and 1776. (G. 40. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n.," p. 542) He also served as Lt. in Col. Lasher's Regt. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 218)

He m. Sarah 5, dau. of Ezekiel Wickes. (See Wickes)

NORTH GABRIEL—From Queens Co. to Norwalk. In Feb., 1780, his petition to return to L. I. was granted. (E. 111, 112) Evidently he afterward removed to Delaware Co., N. Y.; for, on Jan. 5, 1799, he was one of the petitioners from that Co. to the N. Y. Ass'y praying that a part of the Town of Colchester be annexed to the Town of Walton. (Ass'y Jour.)

NORTON—This Family descends from Rev. John 1, who came from England and was the second Minister of Ipswich, Mass., in 1636. His son, George 2, came to Brookhaven, in 1660. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 495)

Thomas Norton, 17th "Signer" at Guilford, in 1639, was probably son of William Norton of Ockley, Eng., who was one of Mr. Whitfield's Church Wardens in that place. In May, or June, 1639, he was at New Haven, Conn.; and went from that Town to Guilford with the first inhabitants. He may have been the ancestor of the Long Island Nortons. See Smith's and Steiner's "History of Guilford, Conn." (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

Whitaker ("Southold," p. 46) mentions Humphrey Norton among the early settlers at Southold.

NORTON GEORGE (Perhaps a grandson of George 2)—He may have been from Huntington, as he served in Capt. Thomas Wickes Co., in Col. Smith's Regt., which was from that Town. (G. 34) He served in Conn., also. (G. 95) One of the name signed the Association, in 1775, from Brookhaven (H. 24); and another, from Huntington. (H. 29)

His dau., Temperance, b. June 19, 1749; m. in 1772, Israel Titus; d. Oct. 26, 1789, and is buried at Huntington. He was b. Feb. 16, 1744; d. Aug. 15, 1811. (Mr. Edmund D. Titus. Also Titus Gen.)

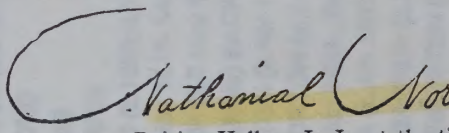
His dau., Sarah, b. in 1757; m. Dec. 16, 1775, John Titus (See Titus); d. Oct. 23, 1792. (E. D. T. Also Titus Gen.)

His son, George, Jr., m. Sept. 1, 1767, Sarah 5 Titus, of Huntington. He had: Ruth, and Henry. Ruth, b. in 1781; m. John Titus (son of John, above). He lived at Somers, N. Y. Henry, b. May 15, 1773; m. in 1796, Mary, or Polly, Titus (dau. of John, above); d. Aug. 11, 1836. He lived at North Salem, N. Y. (E. D. T. Also Titus Gen.)

NORTON NATHANIEL, CAPT. (Son of Nathaniel, son of John—Family Tree, owned by Miss Emma L. Norton)—From Brookhaven to Guilford. On Feb. 26, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn., stating that his family had returned to L. I., and asking leave to go there after clothing, &c.; which was granted, under certain restrictions. (E. 30, 31) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 26, 27)

He was a Lt., at Brookhaven, Aug. 7, 1775 (Jour. Prov'l Cong.), by a Commission issued by the Cong., June 29, previous (G. 1); in the 3d Line (G. 45, 46); in the 4th Line. (G. 47. Also Clinton Pap., 6. 5) He was a Capt. in the 4th Line (G. 47, 48); and served until the end of 1781, when the five Regiments of the N. Y. Line were consolidated. He was then appointed to a more important work, noted below; but his pay as Capt. was continued to the end of the War, and he became entitled to his due succession of rank, by a resolution of Cong. He took part in the Battle of Monmouth, and he was a member of Gen. Sullivan's Expedition against the Six Nations. ("N. Y. State Cincinnati." Also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 494) He also served in Conn. (G. 95) In 1776, he went to L. I. after money for bounties. (Page 100) On Aug. 15, 1780, he wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Camp Tappen, that he had enlisted a number of men on the Frontiers, and that he could have done better with hard cash. He proposed that Maj. John Davis and himself should procure such cash from the inhabitants of Suffolk Co. who are "our stanch friends and who have a considerable quantity of hard cash." The Gov. replied that the plan was practicable; but he would not engage in it unless it was adopted by the Legislature. (Clinton Pap., 7. 103, 122) On May 2, 1781, Ezra L'Hommedieu wrote from Middletown asking the Gov. for a commission for Capt. Norton to cruise in L. I. Sound in an armed boat, as he might bring a number of families from L. I. to the interior of the State of N. Y. (Clinton Pap., 6. 824) Then followed, still in 1781, a secret commission by Gov. Clinton to Capt. Norton to obtain the money on L. I.; and, to conceal the object in view, he was appointed to the command of a small armed vessel, the "Suffolk," in which he cruised between Sands Point and New Haven. (Page 218. Also Thompson, as above. Also G. 2. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," p. 254)

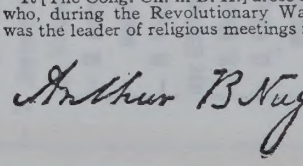
Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 51) He was b., at Brookhaven, in 1742. [Miss Emma L. Norton says, 1743] He served in the French War, 1756–1760; and was at Oswego in the latter year. After the Rev'y War he became a Member of the Cincinnati, and returned to his farm. In 1790, he became an Elder, and later a Minister, in the Baptist Church. He had pastorates in Conn. and at Herkimer, N. Y. This work he relinquished, in 1805. He d. Oct. 7, 1837, being at that time the oldest member of the Cincinnati. He is buried near the Baptist Church, at Coram, L. I. One of his children was Dr. Samuel Norton, of Coram, who d. in 1840. (Thompson, 2. 494, 495)



He was b. in 1743. He preached at Baiting Hollow, L. I., at the time of his marriage to his second wife, the mother of Samuel. This was before he went to Herkimer. He preached in New York quite a while when very old; and he was keeping house there, with his third wife, when he d. (Miss E. L. N.)

Prof. Robert N. Corwin quotes from the Manual of the Congregational Church in Baiting Hollow:

> It [The Cong. Ch. in B. H.] arose in part from the faithful labors of Capt. Nathaniel Norton, who, during the Revolutionary War, commanded some sailing craft, and as early as 1781 was the leader of religious meetings in this place.



NUGENT ARTHUR B.—On Feb. 28, 1781, he petitioned for leave to return to his business on L. I.; which was not allowed. (E. 144) He may have m. Wid. Anna Hinchman. (See Hinchman)

OSBORN—OSMAN—No such name as Osman appears in the Southampton Records. Others following Thompson, who gives it, have been perplexed at finding no traces of the name. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 435)

> In the latter part of the eighteenth century the Osman and Osborn names became singularly confused. This confusion misled for a time even such a careful writer as the late J. Wickham Case. In a note in Southold Printed Records, Vol. 1, p. 98, on 1st Thomas Osman, Mr. Case identifies the families, saying, "They changed their family name Osman to Osburn in 1778 (See Vol. D. 136)." This he corrected in a later note, Vol. 2, p. 536, where he explains, "These two names became confounded on the Town Records in 1778, the name being written Osman by the Town Clerk when he should have written it Osborn." * * * The confusion of

The following names were handwritten in a small notebook found in back of the diary kept by Martha Abigail (SWEET) WOOLEY, wife of Charles Luther WOOLEY, from 1896 to 1908. Author of this notebook is unknown. Copied as found and obvious mistakes corrected by Frances (FROBERG) WOOLEY July 14, 1989. Entries in right-hand columns obtained from information found at LDS Family History Centers from New Jersey birth, death, marriage, census and cemetery records. This information used only to obtain a time span of the names listed in this notebook and to be used as an aid by those doing research on the WOOLEY, NORRIS, CRAIG and ALLER (or ALLEN) lines. Any names and info inside brackets [ ] was not on original list. Numbers in front of names are my Record ID Numbers.

STEDY MEN

NORRIS

JOSEPH NORRIS FAMILY

The family record of Joseph Norris is recorded in the Wright Family Reunion Book, in possession of Mr. Orval Wright, Sheridan, Ind. The original source of the record is unknown, as is the name of the person who transcribed it in the reunion book.

Joseph Norris may have come from Monmouth or Burlington Co., N. J. He was of New Jersey as late as 1795, as a census record of his son Samuel places the latter's birth here. The same census lists son Joseph as born in New York; the record itself states that daughter Johannah was born on Long Island. By 1819 Joseph, Sr., had removed to Dearborn Co., Ind., but the 1840 and 1850 census records show he was then of Boone Co., Ind. The death and burial places of Joseph and his wife are not known.

The record, number 3565 of the GSNJ collection, was contributed by Mrs. Richard A. Schwabauer, 1100 S.E. Waverley Drive, Portland, Ore., who seeks the ancestry of Joseph Norris and Elizabeth Wooley. The entries in the record for the children have been modified from tabular to sentence form. It will be noticed that the birth record of William appears to be out of order.

NORRIS

Dear Fran,

Thank you so much for your letter. I appreciate the information you sent.

I only have that Margaret Brian was born in 1796 in Chester, Morris, New Jersey. Wish I had more.

We felt the earthquakes and wondered if we were going to get it too. So easily could have been us. I worried about the hurricane and flood you were getting. Hope it didn't effect you.

Hope you are well. We are getting rain.

Dear Ms Wooley,

I received your query about the Wooley/Norris families and have gathered up what I have to share with you. I haven't worked on this branch of my family for about four years, so I'm not really "current" in anything. I'm not at all sure I have anything that will help you with your branch or not, but it might give you some clues on where to look. Most of it is correspondence and information I've gathered from others. As I say, I was actively pursuing the Van Cleef family and all of its allied lines at that time but have stopped to work on my own side of the family recently.

I have enclosed a family group sheet on our branch of the Joseph Norris/Elizabeth Wooley family which will show our connection to the Wooleys. I was trying to find the parents of Elizabeth Wooley who married Joseph Norris, but wasn't successful yet. I thought at the time it was Samuel Wooley, but haven't proven it as yet.

The Pedigree Chart for Emma S. Johnson goes back a LONG way but I hadn't tied into it yet. I corresponded with Mrs. Johnson for several years before her death. She was quite elderly and nearly blind when we were exchanging information. She had a woman come in once a week to help her with her correspondence. She was a real help to me on several of my lines and a joy to receive a letter from! I have not checked her information for accuracy, however.

You might be interested in the Wooley Data Exchange Newsletter if it's still in operation. Note the 1984 date. It may be out of publication now but it's worth checking out.

The first I have been able to verify my Van Cleef/Norris family is in Dearborn Co., IN in the 1820 census. I have a record of Joseph Norris and his wife in a Methodist Church in Aurora and also owning a lot in the town of Aurora in about 1816. His brother Richard R. Norris was on the Trustees who platted and sold land for the town of Aurora. They were still there in the 1830 census but moved to Boone Co., IN by 1840. Joseph Norris died in Boone Co., IN. as did his brother Richard R. Norris. Richard R.'s body was returned to Dearborn Co., IN for burial in Trester Cemetery, however. Then the Van Cleefs moved to Benton Co., IA by 1850 where they remained until about 1869 when they moved to Guthrie Co., IA where they remained. My husband's grandfather, William Van Cleef, moved from Guthrie Co., IA to Saline Co., KS about the turn of the century and remained there. I don't know what happened to the Norris'. We believe both families came from Monmouth Co., NJ, but haven't been able to put that together either.

I hope the material I've sent will give you some leads--and maybe even tie in with your family. If I can give further help, feel free to let me know.

Good luck in your searching.

Sincerely
Dorothy Van Cleef

LYONS CEMETERY Section 8, Fairview Township

Lyons Cemetery is located in the NW corner of the SE¼ of Section 8. The only records found as to its origin began in 1907 and are as follows:

William H. Daily to Lyons Cemetery Ass'n by deed dated July 5, 1907. Trustees Lyon Cemetery Ass'n to Lyons Cemetery by deed dated July 19, 190[illegible] Harvey A. Craig & wife (4/5 acre) to Lyons Cemetery by deed dated Jan. 23, 1939. There were two stones in 1839 with quite a few in 1840. Jared Lyo[illegible] was buried here in 1851, also his wife and son. While there is no known record as to the naming of this Cemetery, it could be assumed the Cemeter[illegible] was named for the Lyons Family.

This Cemetery was hit by a tornado on May 14, 1961, and the Northeas[illegible] or oldest portion, was the hardest hit. The old limestone slabs were broken off at ground level, and sometimes smashed into four or five piece[illegible] The broken pieces were piled together in two different places. These stones dated from 1837 to 1860 with most of them being children's stones. There were sixty-three readable stones in this group with about seven hundred fifty burials in this Cemetery.
